

March 18, 2011
Shinsei Bank Limited

Shinsei Bank Accepts Donations to Aid Tohoku Region Earthquake Relief Efforts

Shinsei Bank would like to express its deepest sympathies to all those affected by the Tohoku Region Earthquake. We pray for a swift recovery for all.

Shinsei Bank has opened an account to accept donations to assist the victims of this disaster and help recovery efforts in the region.

1. Donation Account

Beneficiary Bank (Transfer to): Shinsei Bank Head Office (honten)
Branch Number: 400
Account Type: Yen savings account
Account Number: 6334916
Account Name: ニホンセキジユウジシヤ (Nihon Sekijyujisha)

2. Donations accepted from: March 17, 2011 (Thursday)

3. Transfer Fees

No fees will be charged for transfers made at Shinsei Bank branch counters or from our call centers. Transfers made by Shinsei PowerDirect Internet banking will remain free as usual. Other financial institutions may charge a fee to make a transfer to Shinsei Bank. Shinsei Bank does not accept transfers of cash at branch counters.

4. Use of Donations

All donations will be forwarded to the Japanese Red Cross and will go towards assisting recovery efforts in the regions affected by the earthquake.

5. Issuance of Receipts

For those who require a receipt, the Japanese Red Cross will, in due course, provide details of the procedures necessary for issuance of a receipt for donations via its website: <http://www.jrc.or.jp/>