Relocation of Nagoya Branch and Strengthening of Retail Branches
- Shinsei Bank expands its retail branch to two; the Nagoya Financial Center and the Sakae Financial Center -

Tokyo (Wednesday, November 25, 2015) --- Shinsei Bank, Limited (hereinafter, “Shinsei Bank”; “the Bank”) today announced that it will relocate its Nagoya Branch and Nagoya Financial Center to the Dai Nagoya Building which was completed at the end of October 2015 and is located in front of Nagoya Station, and will commence operations of the location on Monday, February 15, 2016, as part of efforts to strengthen its sales capabilities in the Nagoya region. The Bank will also rename the current Nagoya Financial Center to the “Sakae Financial Center,” effective the same date.

Upon the commencement of operations at the Nagoya Financial Center in addition to the Sakae Financial Center, Shinsei Bank will expand and strengthen its retail sales facilities in the Nagoya region for individual customers. By providing asset management consulting services that offer optimal financial services to meet customers’ needs and lifestyles and unique mortgage loans, Shinsei Bank aims to expand its customer base in the Region. For institutional customers, the Bank will also further strengthen its business by providing convenient financial products and services.
